DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1962, do hereby dedicate this yearbook to the new Littlestown Junior-Senior High School. As we have passed "Out of the Old-Into the New," we will always be appreciative of the guidance and leadership of our fine teachers. In our pursuit of scholarship and intellectual achievement we are grateful for the many opportunities which the school has afforded us.

As we have passed through portals of three previous schools, thus we do one last time, leaving behind us cherished memories.

OUT OF THE OLD

East King Street School . . .

FOREWORD

In presenting this yearbook, we, the Class of '62 have tried to gather together the fondest memories of our last years as students of L.H.S. We have endeavored to capture the true spirit of our school life, its trials and rewards.

As we approach the threshold of life, we anticipate, with anxiety, our future about which some of us are uncertain. However, thanks to the guidance and understanding of our teachers, we will face it with open minds.

In parting we would like to leave this thought: "Out of the Old--Into the New,"
As for our school days, now they are through.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

PAUL E. KING

You are to be congratulated or perhaps better said, you should be grateful for being the first class to graduate from a new high school. Perhaps we too should better say, a new building, for a High School in Littlestown is by no means an innovation. Your Alma Mater has had a noble heritage. Many are the graduates who have passed through its portals in the last sixty years. Their contribution to the progress of our world has been commendable. As you survey some of the greats who have graced our school, may you strive to emulate their accomplishments and if possible reach to noble heights in your endeavor. In whatever vocation or profession you find yourself, may you be successful and above all be happy in service for your fellowman. Au revoir and not forgotten.

Paul E. King, Supervising
Principal

FRANK E. BASEHOAR

The class of '62 is privileged by being the first to graduate from the new Junior-Senior High School, the first class to have an exchange student. These firsts should be an incentive for the class to maintain a functioning organization through the years. Individual members of the class made themselves outstanding in scholarship, sports and other activities. With the knowledge and the training you received at L.H.S. I feel confident you will be able to go out and face the future as well adjusted, successful, American citizens and make your Alma Mater proud of you.

Frank E. Basehoar, Principal

LLOYD L. STAVELY

At the end of another school year it is a pleasure to extend congratulations to you, the members of the Class of 1962, upon your graduation from L.H.S. In a world of turmoil and tension we express the hope that the knowledge and training you have received as students will be an asset for a better understanding of life's problems and a help to attain the goal you have set for yourself.

It was a pleasure to have had you in our school family and, as the years come and go, we hope you will find it convenient to visit us often for your Alma Mater will be glad to welcome you. Best wishes are extended to you in all your endeavors and may your future always be happy and bright.

SENIORS

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT

EINAR SIGURBJÖRNSSON

Our class of 1962 has been fortunate to have had with us this year an exchange student from Iceland. His name is Einar Sigurbjörnsson, and he is the son of Sigurbjörn Einarsson, bishop of Iceland. He joined the Senior Class of L.H.S. for a year of study in the United States. He is living with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weikert.

Einar is seventeen years old, and he came from Rrykjovik, a city of 70,000 people, in Iceland. There are 900 students in his high school where he has studied Danish, English, German, Latin languages, and also Icelandic, the language of his country. His interests are in the field of religion.

Einar enjoyed the United States and his school life, and we have been privileged and honored to share our senior year with him. The class wishes him the best of luck and happiness in the future, as he returns to his country and continues his studies there.

CLASS HISTORY

Reflecting back over the many years that we have spent here, it is with sadness that we leave Littlestown Junior Senior High School, our home for the past 6 years.

We remember well our first days as members of the seventh grade, exposed for the first time to a new way of school life. We went to our first Valentine Dance, participated in junior high sports, and in money making projects for our class.

In eighth grade we were accustomed to our new surroundings and the year passed swiftly. We participated in the various activities available to us as junior high students.

In 1958 we moved as freshmen from the East King Street school to the high school on Maple Avenue. Many members of the class took part in junior varsity and varsity sports open to them. We held the Valentine Dance for the junior high and Diane Sterner, one of the students from West Manheim, was crowned queen.

As sophomores we were now truly senior high students. We went to the annual Christmas Dance, took part in senior high activities, and senior band and chorus.

Our junior year found us busily engaged in our many extracurricular pursuits. We held the prom "April in Paris" for the seniors.

At last we find ourselves seniors, the first class to graduate from the new high school. We held the Christmas Dance for the senior high and for the most part took charge of the various activities as seniors.

Respectively submitted,
Richard Hornberger

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

As seventh graders we gradually became accustomed to our new environment at Littlestown High School after six years of elementary education.

In eighth grade we had our first class project, a skating party at Bankert's.

When we were freshmen we received our school rings and enjoyed planning and decorating for the Valentine Dance. The theme was "Hearts and Flowers" and Joan Barton was chosen to reign as queen.

As "silly" sophomores we increased our class treasury by holding two Kartoon Karnivals. Another highlight of the year was attending our first Christmas Dance.

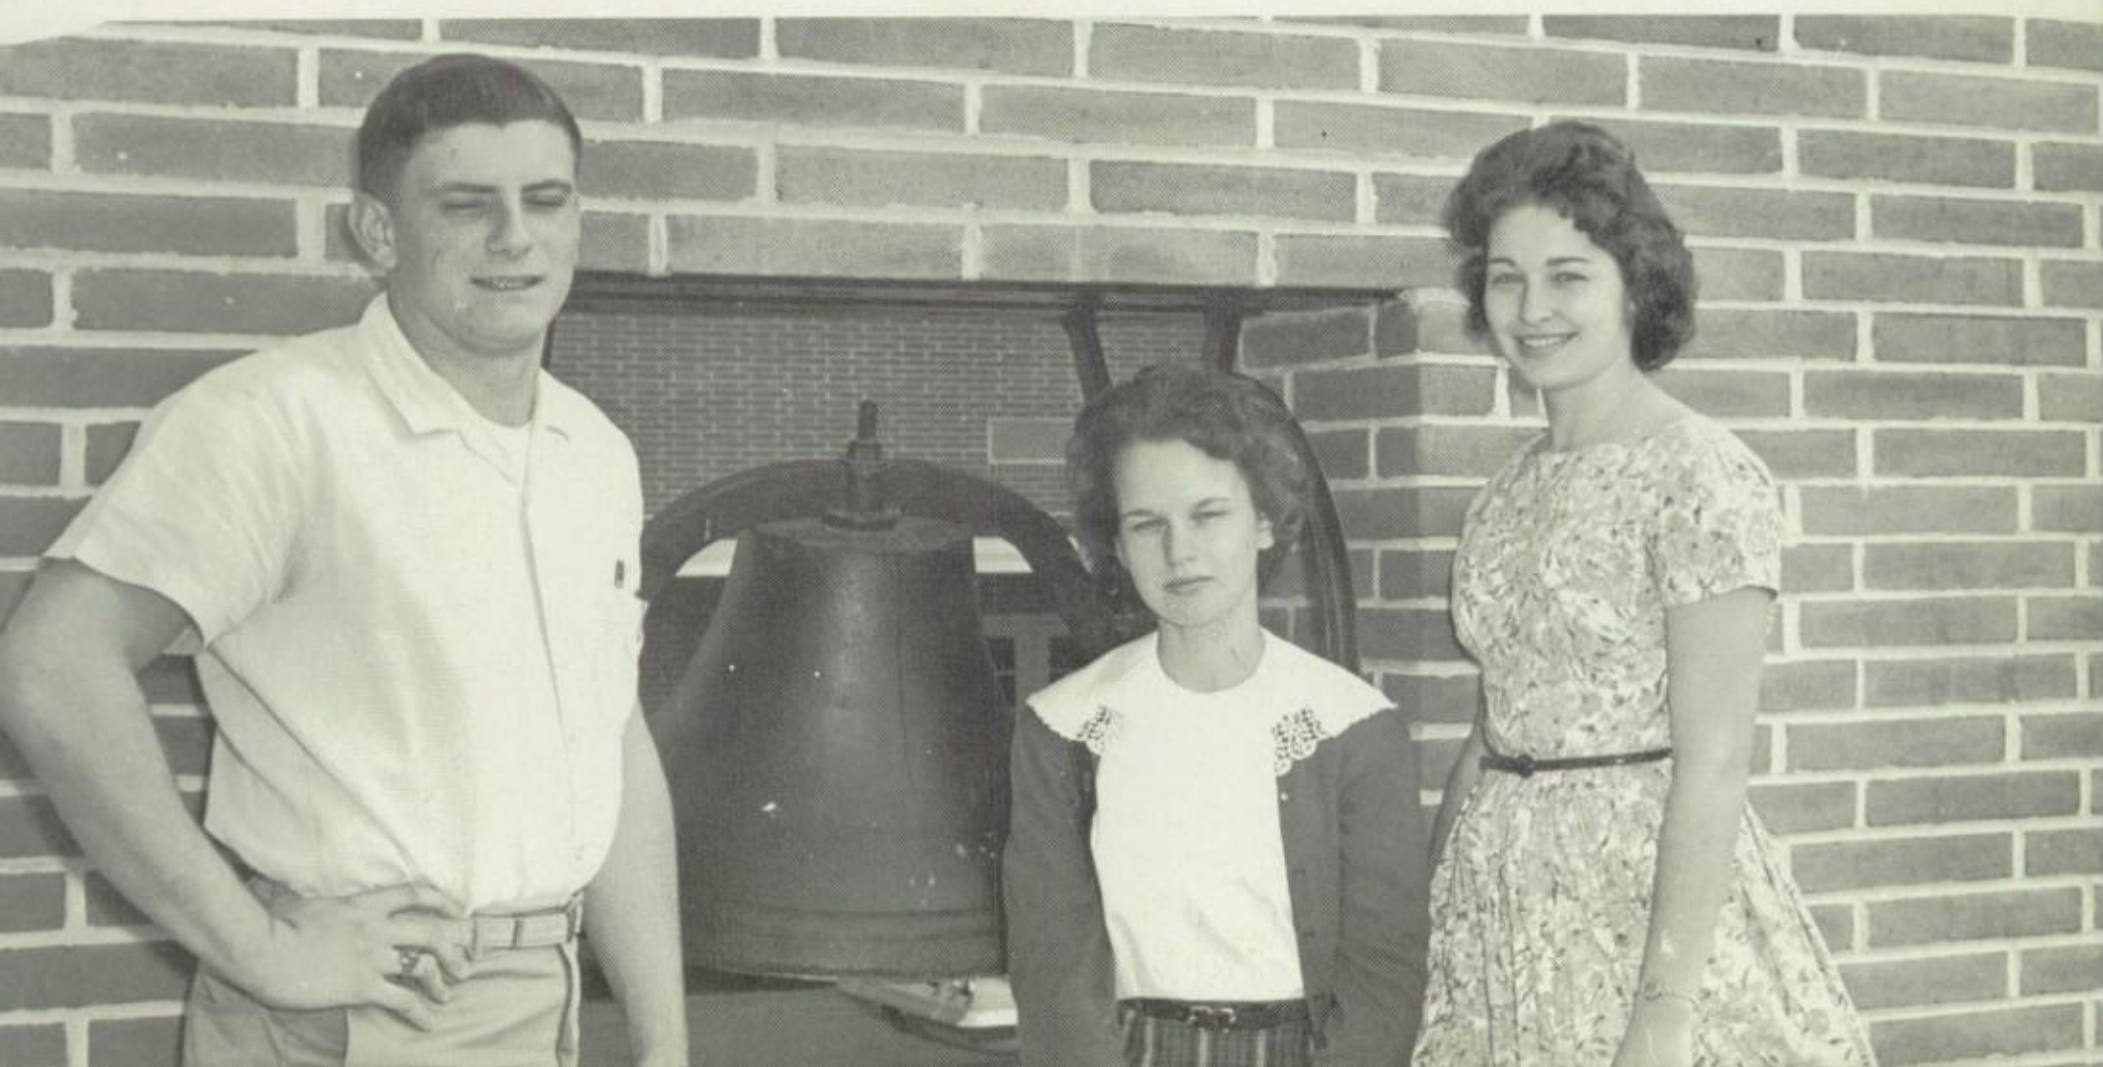

We, the Class of '63, entered our junior year with the bright prospects of attending classes in our new high school. We were delighted and proud to receive our class rings. We had several class projects two of which were, selling Wolfgang's candy and having a Kartoon Karnival. Ours was the first prom to be held in the new high school building.

We are anxiously looking forward to becoming seniors during the 1962-63 school term.

"AVRIL

The theme of the 1961 Junior-Senior Prom was Avril a Paris, and the decorations were centered around a reproduction of a French cafe.

A' PARIS''

On the stage was a large replica of the Leaning Tower of Pisa and in the foreground the Harry Marsh orchestra provided the music for the evening.

“CHRISTMAS

On December 17, 1961, the Senior Class presented the first Christmas Dance ever to be held in the new building.

The theme, CHRISTMAS COTTILLION, was carried out with white and gold decorations.

COTTILLION"

Despite the weather, the evening was made more enjoyable by waiters from the sophomore class and pleasant music provided by the LEONARD T. ZINN QUINTET.

CUPID'S

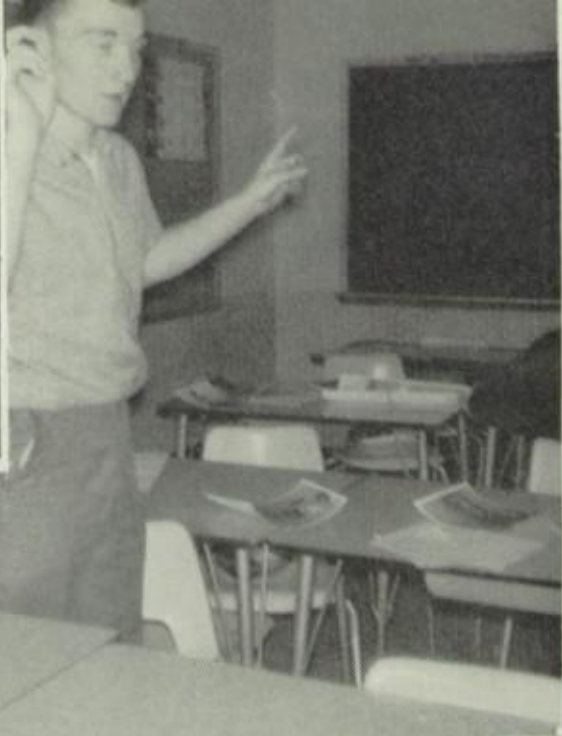

On February 10, 1962 the annual Valentine Dance was held in the Maple Avenue High School auditorium. Decorated in traditional red and white, the auditorium made a pretty setting for the theme of "Cupid's Paradise."

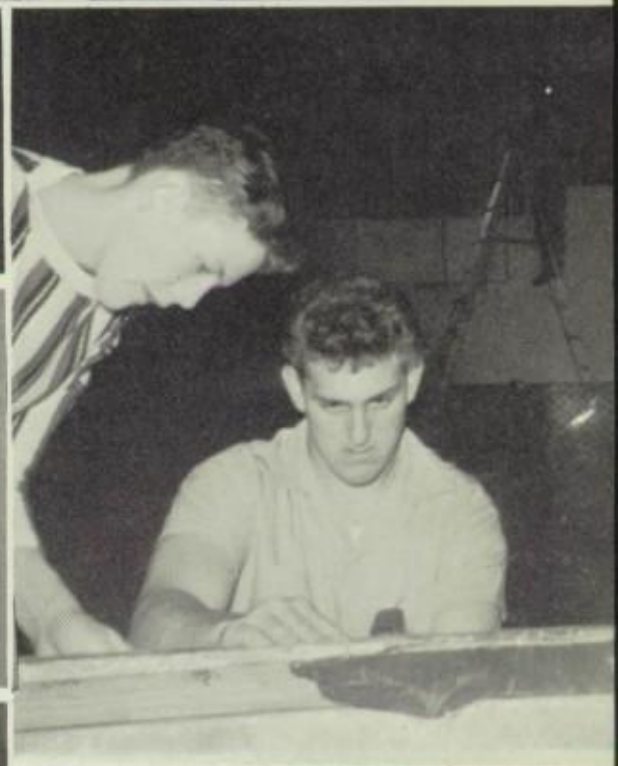

Music was provided by the Littlestown High School Dance Band.

PARADISE

At this time Miss Judy Koontz, who was chosen as queen by popular vote of her classmates, was crowned by last year's queen Miss Betty Lou Sell. Her attendants included: Miss Sally Bankert, ninth grader; Miss Sidney Noble, eighth grader; Miss Linda Bair, seventh grader.

"HONEY IN THE HIVE"

On March 30, the senior class presented its annual play entitled "Honey in the Hive," a comedy. The cast of characters included Betty Morelock and Paul Bowman as Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell; Linda Ealy as Betty Lou Maxwell, their fifteen year old daughter; Jon Newman as their thirteen year old son, Wilbur; Sally Brown as Connie, another daughter, age seventeen; Linda Dehoff and Donald Arbogast as Mr. and Mrs. V. Hamilton Coday, who controlled nearly the whole town; Rita Heiser as Suzanne, their daughter; Randy Yohn as Roger, their eldest son; Francis Barnes as Arthur, their youngest son; Judy Shomper as Bernadine Smith, Betty Lou's best friend; Sharon Flinchbaugh and Rodney Sponseller as Mr. and Mrs. Davis, the Maxwell family's neighbors; and Patsy Croft as Mrs. Allen, another neighbor.

The play meant four weeks of hard work and nightly rehearsals for the cast and its director, Mr. Evans. Everyone worked hard, memorized lines, forgot cues, became discouraged, and became completely bored with the play. When the curtain went up on the night of March 30, there was more than one person with butterflies in his stomach. Contrary to our wildest imaginings, everything went smoothly and the play was a success.
